Repair Service Work Guarantee Waiver Release

Modern circuit board rework and repair can be extremely demanding. Many processes require the use of sophisticated machines, and the most in-depth operator training. The most stringent process controls must be maintained throughout the entire process.

At Circuit Technology Center, Inc. we guarantee 100% acceptance of all contract service work. Any product found to be defective resulting directly from contract service work performed by Circuit Technology Center, Inc. can be returned. We will either attempt to correct the defect at no cost, or return the product to the customer and provide a credit.

We will certainly make every effort to repair/rework your project successfully. However, this project require processing be beyond what we would normally attempt. Under these conditions we may require payment in full prior to the start of the project and do not provide a guarantee. Please complete this form and fax it back to us.
